Cats Eye Margaret Atwood

Cat's Eye is a 1988 novel by Canadian writer Margaret Atwood about controversial painter Elaine Riskey, who vividly reflects on her childhood and teenage years. Her strongest memories are of Cordelia, who was the leader of a trio of girls who were both very cruel and very kind to her in ways that tint Elaine's perceptions of relationships and her world — not to mention her art — into her middle years.

Cat's Eye by Margaret Atwood Plot Summary | LitCharts

Cat's Eye by Margaret Atwood. I. IRON LUNG. 1. Time is not a line but a dimension, like the dimensions of space. If you can bend space you can bend time also, and if you knew enough and could move faster than light you could travel backwards in time and exist in two places at once. It was my brother Stephen who told me that, when he wore his ravelling maroon sweater to study in and spent a lot of time standing on his head so that the blood would run down into his brain and nourish it.
