How Much Money Is Enough? While having a high income makes saving easier, building your wealth is a function of how much of your income you save versus how much of it you spend. If you have a $50,000 take-home income and spend $30,000 of it, you can save $20,000. That percentage saved, 40%, is your Savings Rate.

To build a modern turf building and its accompanying parking lot in Heritage Village would be a travesty. It would be like a homemade apple pie with a brick in the middle of it. "History is the way today got here," says a history teacher I know. A sod hut and the other historic village buildings tell me a lot about how today got to Sioux ...
