Benandonner and the Giant's Causeway. The most famous story told of the exploits of Finn MacCool is about the Giant's Causeway in County Antrim. It's undoubtedly
mysterious and unique,
but also appears on the Scottish Island of Staffa which is North of Antrim.

The great Irish Giant, Finn MacCool, had some fearsome enemies - the Scottish giants. Finn was so angry and determined to get at them, that he built a whole causeway from Ulster across the sea to Scotland. He built it of unusual six-sided cobblestones, so they would fit neatly together like a honeycomb. This became known as the Giant's Causeway.
