Kingdom of Ash has some really strong moments, but there's so much filler and repetition that you have to fight through the boring parts to get to them. This is, at most, a 500-page story, extended with long, slow stretches of the characters journeying from one place to another, and repetitive scenes of battle.

Throne of Glass - Kingdom of Ash. And there it was. The very last book of the Throne of Glass series. A series that I left untouched for years but that definitely turned out to be one of my absolute favourites. If not my favourite so far. So I have to admit, knowing that this would be the end of it all really, really scared me.
