Phase Linear 5000 Series Two FM Tuner The Phase Linear 5000 FM Tuner was introduced in 1976. It was designed by A.P. Van Meter. It featured two meters, one for signal strength and the other for stereo tuning. It was designed on the same scale as the amplifiers. Phase Linear sold fewer 5000 Tuners than its amplifiers and pre-amplifiers, which is one reason the component is so rarely seen today.
