For example, season one's The Wild Wild West: The Night of the Whirring Death (1966) takes place in 1874, while some season two episodes (such as The Wild Wild West: The Night of the Eccentrics (1966) and The Wild Wild West: The Night of the Brain (1967)) take place in 1872 or another pre-1874 date. Usually this does not make any problem for internal storyline continuity, as the episodes rarely refer back to each other specifically.
