In essence, this is what it says: the heart is that spiritual part of us where our emotions and desires dwell.

Before we look at the human heart, we'll mention that, since God has emotions and desires, He, too, can be said to have a "heart."

We have a heart because God does.

David was a man "after God's own heart" (Acts 13:22).

The heart is the organ that helps supply blood and oxygen to all parts of the body. It is divided by a partition (or septum) into two halves. The halves are, in turn, divided into four chambers. The heart is situated within the chest cavity and surrounded by a fluid-filled sac called the pericardium.
